Dear Sravya,

St. Louis, Missouri USA is home to major corporations, technology start-ups and universities advancing business and healthcare across the world.

In the heart of this region is Saint Louis University, a top 100 university with strong graduate programs in science, technology, business and medicine. Our faculty are known for excellence in teaching and advising so our students are well-prepared for successful careers of their choice.

Saint Louis University is investing in graduate education with new scholarships for students from India. With scholarships reaching up to 50% of tuition, we are recognizing graduate students as important members of our large and growing international community. We offer guaranteed on-campus jobs to international students who want to expand their work experience.

As you make plans for Fall 2020, consider studying with expert faculty at Saint Louis University and living in one of the fastest growing tech cities in the United States.

Our scholarship interviews will begin in the last week of January 2020. We will book appointments immediately after submitting your admission application.

Learn more about the opportunities that await you at slu.edu/globalgrad or scan the QR code. You can contact us at slu-india@slu.edu or leave a voicemail at 1800120220021 with any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Davis
