

Day 7:

Day Seven started with Plantation. Our total volunteers are divided themselves into groups and started making holes for plantation of different plants. After that some other groups are started planting useful plants in and around adopted school and along the streets of the village.

Before valedictory function Sri. B. V. Appala Naidu, Skill Development officer, GVP College for Degree and PG Courses delivered a motivational speech to all the volunteers.

The camp came to an end by the valedictory function in the afternoon session. Prof. B. Madhukar, Vice principal, GVP College for Degree and PG Courses, Prof. A. Rama Krishna, Director, GVP School of engineering, Sri. B. V. Appala Naidu, Skill Development officer, GVP College for Degree and PG Courses attended as guests for valedictory function and presented certificates to all the winners of different competitions conducted in the special camp. Finally vote of thanks proposed by NSS Programme Officer Dr. D. Santhosh Kumar. The total seven day NSS Special Camp was closed by singing National Anthem.

Jai Hind